

BRIDES

2010 PREVIEW

the best dresses,
colors,
hairstyles!

ELEGANT
DIY DETAILS
that anyone
can create (yes, you!)

is mom driving
you crazy?
how to deal
» PAGE 138

gowns that will make you love
your body

30
instant
ways to take control of your budget

LAST-MINUTE
IDEAS
for a truly
fun party

must-have tipping guide

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2009
DISPLAY UNTIL DECEMBER 14, 2009

$5.99US $6.99FOR

WWW.BRIDES.COM
FROM THE PUBLISHERS OF VOGUE & GLAMOUR

red & black 'Tis the season to be stylish. Your attendants follow suit in festive finery that rings in the night.

A plaid print looks hip when splashed on a one-shoulder style; about $250, Jovani. Earrings, about $198, Joy O Designs. Clutch, about $298, Badgley Mischka. Shoes, about $88, White House Black Market.

Guests will be on red alert when your flower girl makes her entrance in this charming crimson frock. Black stripes and a bow accent the tulle dress, which has a pouf skirt; about $166, Isabel Garretón.

Babes in black can always benefit from a shot of color—let scarlet shoes be the bright spot. Here, retro meets red satin in peep-toe d'Orsay stilettos trimmed with bows; about $93, Nina.

A spherical bouquet of hot-hued blooms (roses, muscari, purple sweet peas, and clematis vines) sizzles against dark dresses; about $300, Belle Fleur, NYC. Headband, about $18, L. Erickson USA.

If your frontmen want something a little special (it's the holiday season, after all), opt for a satin-trimmed tux and a cherry tie. Tuxedo jacket and white shirt, After Six. Woven-silk tie, The Tie Bar.

This classic black taffeta and net A-line dress flatters most figures; about $200, B2 by Jasmine. Brooch, about $39, Talbots. Bracelets, about $40 to $150, Sisco Family Jewels. Turn to Shopping Guide.

TO BRIDES.COM/FASHION FOR MORE BRIDAL-PARTY LOOKS.